

Description

Stalosan is a disinfectant and desiccant powder making it a unique sanitising agent for all animal housing.

Features

- Stalosan F is a broad spectrum dry disinfectant, effective against bacteria (Salmonella and E. coli), viruses, fungi, coccidial oocytes, fly larvae and roundworm eggs.
- Stalosan F is a proficient desiccant which effectively controls moisture, reduces ammonia, hydrogen sulphide and other noxious gases.
- Stalosan F is approved by the Environmental Protection agency, a division of the FDA (Registration number: 75613-1) and SABS approved.
- Stalosan F can be used whilst animals are in the animal housing.
- Stalosan F can be applied by hand, manual spreaders or blowers.
- Stalosan F is a fine pink inert mineral compound.
- Stalosan F is safe to man, animals and the environment.
- Stalosan F has a huge amount of data available on all aspects of the product.
- Stalosan F has complete technical and marketing dossiers.

Benefits

- Stalosan F creates optimal sanitary conditions in animal housing and has a long term residual effect.
- Stalosan F is not inactivated when it comes into contact with organic material such as ground floors or bedding material
- Stalosan F can be used with animals in situ.
- Stalosan F does not become inactive once it dries out
- Stalosan F has a long term broad spectrum effect.
- Stalosan F has an effective control against

Bacteria	Viruses	Ammonia
Fungi	Parasites	Moisture

Applications

- ⇒ Requires treatment once a day for 3 days, thereafter once per week.
- ⇒ Simply sprinkle 50 g per m² of floor space.
- ⇒ Can be done by hand or sieve.
- ⇒ Can also use spreaders or powder blowers.

Supplier

Vitfoss

Link

www.stalosan.com